

Reading a Work Schedule

Job Readiness • shifts, conflicts, and planning ahead

FOR STAFF • 30-MINUTE SESSION

Purpose: Practice finding shifts, calculating hours, and spotting schedule conflicts.

Materials: Packet + pencil.

Easy flow: 5 min read schedule • 15 min questions • 5 min conflict scenario • 5 min discussion.

Weekly Schedule

Employee	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu
Avery	4-8	OFF	4-9	4-8
Jordan	OFF	3-8	3-8	OFF
Mia	5-9	5-9	OFF	5-9
DeShawn	3-7	3-7	3-7	3-7
You	4-8	4-8	OFF	4-9

Friday shift for YOU: 4-10 PM • Saturday: 12-6 PM • Sunday: OFF

Schedule Detective

Which day are you off? _____

How many hours do you work Thursday?

How many total hours are scheduled Monday-Saturday?

You have an appointment Thursday at 4:30 PM. What is the problem?

Who should you contact about a schedule conflict?

Why is 'I didn't know I worked' usually not a strong excuse?

Conflict Challenge

Your friend invites you to a concert Saturday at 5 PM. Your schedule says 12-6 PM.

- ☐ Leave work early without asking
- ☐ Ask about switching shifts ahead of time
- ☐ Call out at the last minute
- ☐ Tell your friend you may not be able to go

Best choice and why: _____

Best choice and why: _____

Get Them Talking

- How often should you check your work schedule?
- What if the schedule changes after you already checked it?
- What is a backup plan for getting to an early shift?